

Rise Again

Deadstar Assembly

Can you see the fires burning
Igniting a blood red sky
The sign another phoenix is rising
We won't let the time pass us by

There will be no blood on our hands
We're dying to take a stand
There is no pretend in the end
We'll rise again
We're rising again
Rise up!

All the ashes have fallen away
Renew a past that won't be forgotten
The future's ours there is no deny
Our will won't be broken
We'll keep this alive

There will be no blood on our hands
We're dying to take a stand
There is no pretend in the end
We'll rise again
We'll rise again
We're rising again
Rise up!

It's alive in the air
Cutting through no despair
Rising up we won't fall
Feeds the rage in us all
It's alive in the air
Cutting through no despair
Rising up we won't fall
Feeds the rage in us all
We're rising again

There will be no blood on our hands
We're dying to take a stand
There is no pretend in the end
We'll rise again
We're rising again
There will be no blood on our hands
We're dying to take a stand
There is no pretend in the end
We'll rise again
We'll rise again
We're rising again
Rise up!
