

Subterranean Bullshit Blues

Deaf Havana

Empty days and emptier nights always lead me to find
I'm waking up on the floor still coughing up blood,
Is it worth it?
But one more night won't hurt nearly as much as the pain in my side.
Because I can truly be whoever I want with this as my disguise

All I know is I'm wasting my time.
Yeah, all I know is I'm wasting my time.
Belief is getting harder to find,
Cause all I know is I'm wasting my time.

I look forward to the day I can say
"Look what I've done with my life, aren't you proud..."
But until that day comes I'll keep holding on for an easy way o ut.

All I know is I'm wasting my time.
Yeah, all I know is I'm wasting my time.
Belief is getting harder to find,
Cause all I know is I'm wasting my time.

As I get older my future hasn't got any clearer to me
Looking with eyes found at the bottom of a glass is the only wa y I can see

Empty days and emptier nights always lead me to find
I'm waking up on the floor still coughing up blood,
Is it worth it?

All I know is I'm wasting my time.
Yeah, all I know is I'm wasting my time.
Belief is getting harder to find,
Cause all I know is I'm wasting my time.
All I know is I'm wasting my time.
Yeah, all I know is I'm wasting my time.
Belief is getting harder to find,
Cause all I know is I'm wasting my time.
