

Red Teeth

Dealer

All my life I got more than I bargained for
Closing the door just made me want it more
Like a grenade with shrapnel within
You can call this art but goddamn I'm just trying to pull the p in

No trust, no love
Fuck everyone

Ignorance is like blood moving from its body
After it's dived head first into concrete
Twist and splinter til no arms remain
I found the damage, it wears my face

Am I burned out like Icarus?
Or am I just blind to see
That I'm actually done with this?
Losing sleep, losing time
Can't you see I've lost my life
But I can't seem to die

All my life I got more than I bargained for
Closing the door just made me want it more
Like a grenade with shrapnel within
You can call it art but goddamn I'm just tryna pull the pin

No trust, no love
Fuck everyone
Fuck everyone

The noose is just a leash
For death to drag me to hell
And I feel its calling
Pull up, make me immortal
I fucking need it

I fucking need it
