

Lost Cause

Dean Brody

If you're a fix'em upper girl
Then I'm a needing fixin' up kinda guy
Probably ain't gonna find one better in this whole damn bar
Drinking beer tonight
If you're trying to earn your angel wings
Honey I'll be your devil in disguise
I'm your man with the broken heart in pieces
Maybe you can make 'em fit right

So girl how 'bout another drink
And you can tell me what you think

Baby I'll be your lost cause
If that's the thing you thought I was
I'll be the good time buzz, you'll learn how to love
And not care if you lose
If you ain't had a favourite mistake that you made this week
Then I'm lucky for you girl cause if you need a lost cause
Then I'll be the lost cause for you

I bet a girl like you is overdue
For a little what the hell was I thinking last night
Telling all of your friends you went too stepping way too far
With a guy that your mama wouldn't like

Baby I'll be your lost cause
If that's the thing you thought I was
I'll be the good time buzz, you'll learn how to love
And not care if you lose
If you ain't had a favourite mistake that you made this week
Then I'm lucky for you girl cause if you need a lost cause
Then I'll be the lost cause for you

So baby tell me what you think
Are you ready for one more drink?

Baby I'll be your lost cause
If that's the thing you thought I was
I'll be the good time buzz, you'll learn how to love
And not care if you lose
If you ain't had a favourite mistake that you made this week
Then I'm lucky for you girl cause if you need a lost cause
Then I'll be the lost cause for you

So if you need a lost cause
Baby I'll be the lost cause for you
