

My Last Broken Heart

Dean Brody

Baby this ain't the first time
That I've played this game and lost
I don't mean to sound that mean
If that's how this comes across

It hurts to watch you go
But there's something you should know

You ain't my last broken heart
It ain't the first time it's been tore apart
You may think you're making a permanent scar
But you ain't my last broken heart

It might knock me down for now
But somewhere down the line
I'll pick up the pieces
And give someone else a try

No need to worry about me
It might take a little time but you'll see

Yeah you'll see

You ain't my last broken heart
It ain't the first time it's been tore apart
You may think you're making a permanent scar
But you ain't my last broken heart

Aw break it honey

You ain't my last broken heart
It ain't the first time it's been tore apart
You may think you're making a permanent scar
But you ain't my last broken heart

You may think you're making a permanent scar
But you ain't my last broken heart
