

You Got The Wrong Guy

Dean Brody

If you're looking for somebody to take you out
Slow dance close in a downtown crowd
To a song you like
You got the wrong guy
And if you're looking for somebody to tell his friends
He'd rather see you than hang with them
On a Saturday night
You got the wrong guy

If he ain't putting you first, hanging on your every word
Like you deserve, I want to
If he ain't holding your hand, making down-the-road plans
While he's got the chance, why don't you
Go on and cut him loose, he don't know what he's got
He's got you but I know you're not
Calling me up this late 'cause you wanna say hi
I think you know you got the wrong guy

You got the wrong guy

If you're looking for somebody to take you back
To his hometown, tell his mom and dad
I found the one this time
You got the wrong guy
And if you're looking for somebody to let you in
To fall into and keep falling
You should drop on by
'Cause you got the wrong guy, but I got all night

If he ain't putting you first, hanging on your every word
Like you deserve, I want to
If he ain't holding your hand, making down-the-road plans
While he's got the chance, why don't you
Go on and cut him loose, he don't know what he's got
He's got you but I know you're not
Calling me up this late 'cause you wanna say hi
I think you know you got the wrong guy

You got the wrong
You got the wrong guy
You got the wrong

And the right guy is right here waiting
Yeah, I'm just saying

If he ain't putting you first, hanging on your every word
Like you deserve, I want to
If he ain't holding your hand, making down-the-road plans
While he's got the chance, girl why don't you
Go on and cut him loose, he don't know what he's got
He's got you but I know you're not
Calling me up this late 'cause you wanna say hi
I think you know you got the wrong guy

You got the wrong
You got the wrong guy
You got the wrong

You got the wrong guy
