

Runaway

Dean Geyer

Claustrophobic in your own skin
Everyone around you is staring
Like the vultures they are, searching for anything
Who's there to save you from your own skin, own skin?
And where is this beautiful world?
Nowhere to be seen

So you can do it all you want 'cause I know
The need to be free, it's time to leave
The shell that you keep for yourself
Maybe you don't need me

You're just a runaway
I was already a memory
Just a runaway
Guess I was living in make-believe
You're just a runaway
What a selfish place to be
Just a runaway, you're just a runaway

Keep

Claustrophobic in my own skin
Everything around you is tempting
My tomorrow began only to watch it end
It's like taking off my own skin, own skin
And where is this beautiful girl?
Nowhere to be seen

So you can do it all you want 'cause I know
The need to be free, it's time to leave
The shell that you keep for yourself
Maybe you don't need me

You're just a runaway
I was already a memory
Just a runaway
Guess I was living in make-believe
You're just a runaway
What a selfish place to be
Just a runaway, you're just a runaway

Keep

It kills me that I'd still be here for you
I'm bleeding (bleeding)
It's what I can do

So you can do it all you want 'cause I know
The need to be free, it's time to leave
The shell that you keep for yourself
Maybe you don't need me

You're just a runaway
I was already a memory
Guess I was living in make-believe

You're just a runaway

You're just a runaway
Guess I was living in make-believe

You don't need me
