Dean Ray

I know you're trying, I know your pain
I've seen you drowning, in bitter rain
We all fall out of line sometimes
I've seen you fading, I've seen you fall
I've seen your back up against the wall
We all fall out of line

Sometimes
It's not enough to wait for time
To heal what is broke inside
You're gonna have to stand and fight
It's alright
You're stronger than the tears you cry
I know you're gonna be just fine
I can see it in your eyes

Your heart is fearless, don't be afraid
Turn off the voices of yesterday
We all fall out of line

Sometimes
It's not enough to wait for time
To heal what is broke inside
You're gonna have to stand and fight
It's alright
You're stronger than the tears you cry
I know you're gonna be just fine
I can see it in your eyes
Sapphire
Sapphire

See, another dawn is breaking now
Free the shackles in your mind

Sometimes
It's not enough to wait for time
To heal what is broke inside
You're gonna have to stand and fight
And it's alright
You're stronger than the tears you cry
I know you're gonna be just fine
I can see it in your eyes
