

Better off with Nothing

Deap Vally

Heaven's in their heads
And it feels like
Heaven's out of reach
But it's so bright
Everywhere else it seems
People move easily
But here I sit and rot
In a parking lot
I'm paralyzed

I'm looking for something, something
(Oh, I need it tonight)
Maybe I'd be better off with nothing
(Something ain't right)
I'm looking for something, something
(Oh, I need it tonight)
Maybe I'd be better off with nothing
(Give me some light)

Looking up to the sky
And it's all light
Staring at the stars
I could just cry
In every face I look
I wonder what it took
I wonder if they feel
Like porcelain or steel
What's that feel like?

I'm looking for something, something
(Oh, I need it tonight)
Maybe I'd be better off with nothing
(Something ain't right)
I'm looking for something, something
(Oh, I need it tonight)
Maybe I'd be better off with nothing
(Give me some light)

I'm looking for something, something
(Oh, I need it tonight)
Maybe I'd be better off with nothing
(Something ain't right)
I'm looking for something, something
(Oh, I need it tonight)
Maybe I'd be better off with nothing
(Give me some light)

(I'm looking for something, something
Maybe I'd be better off with nothing
I'm looking for something, something
Maybe I'd be better off with nothing)
