

Whale (Boohoo)

Dear Reader

Just gotta keep on moving, that's our way It's not for a wave to stay in one place And when the ice melts far away We have no say, we gain the weight

Till we cover New York with icy, icy blue And the Statue of Lib erty she'll be poking through And the last time that you see he r it'll be from a canoe Floating on our tears and your tears to o Boohoo Boohoo Boohoo

Her mom died yesterday She will not be going to a funeral But s he'll put on a pretty black dress anyway And then she'll go to the park and play in the sandpit

Then we'll cover New York with icy, icy blue And the Statue of Liberty she'll be poking through And the last time that you see her it'll be from a canoe Floating on our tears and your tears too

We'll cover New York with icy, icy blue And the Statue of Liber ty she'll be poking through And the last time that you see her it'll be from a canoe Singing Mama Goodbye You know we'll alway s miss you Boohoo Boohoo Boohoo
