

Higher In Your Ways

Deas Vail

Running away from time,
Is only logical within your mind,
Cause you can do all things here.
Photos in black and white, and you're scared of all the colours in life.
Running on fumes I feel, oh yeah.

You know that I asked of you, you know I did, yeah.

Now I'm putting this all on go,
Cause all you wanted was just a note.
If our whole lives, buying time.
Oh but darling you'll never know, if tomorrow comes, will we be here?
So take this as it comes by, oh yeah.

You know I tried and tried and tried so hard just to find my wa y out of here.
You can't deny that you have seen me hear me now,
But you know that I've tried.
So put aside your doubting mind and know that someday we're get ting out of here.
Yeah come on girl you know we're going to break this out,
Just to be set a time, oh yeah.

We're putting this all on the line this time,
Before our lives pass us by, oh yeah.

You know I've tried and tried and tried so hard just to find my way out of here.
You can't deny that you have seen me here when you know that I'
ve tried.
So put aside your doubting mind you know that someday we're get ting out of here.
Yeah come on girl you know we're gonna break this out, just to be set a time.
Oh yeah.
