

...Still

Deas Vail

The collapse of the world on the quietest day
This time it's the sun standing still
But holding on hope for something that's good
I've come now as far as I can go today
In this vast empty space

But don't give up now
don't give up now, No
Don't throw your heart away
Don't give up now
Don't give up now, No
Don't throw your heart away

The collapse of the world on the quietest day
This time it's the sun standing still
