This Place Is Painted Red

I get up and I walk away. I swear I wonst get caught in this mold. I live in sacred days. Whatss the point if Ism reconciling past postitions. I am so nasve. I am so nasve.

Put the pressure on. Ism only human but Isll do this if you will speak through me. Take me to that place. I was a boy there. I was so alive but now I am lost in life.

So my friend you tell me over and over. And I said again.

Why wonst you open up? I want to be held again as the walls are falling down. Cause I forget what it was like before you were asleep there un derground.

Give me back my life I am so weary. I am barely breathing. When can we sail away. If yousre the open skies then I am the ocean and horizons make the place we can meet again.

Why wonst you open up? I want to be held again as the walls are falling down. Cause I forget what it was like before you were asleep there un derground.

We were so lost
