Buried Alive

One murder coming on Say I'm wrong for all I've done Are you god to judge us all? Prophet false with a jury hung

Home

An empty shell of a living hell A human zoo full of cannibals Backwards life it's a dirty world Where your dreams can't be heard

A shallow grave is where I dwell Buried alive within this cell A shadow cast upon my fate Deliver me to the one who waits

Guilt, Regret, and Innocence Full of lies, and corruption Suffocate while the worms infest Underground. Take one last breath

An empty shell of a living hell A human zoo full of cannibals Backwards life it's a dirty world Where your dreams can't be heard

A shallow grave is where I dwell Buried alive within this cell A shadow cast upon my fate Deliver me to the one who waits

Visions of life start to flash as the dirt rains down How does your so called god get off on this

Blackness descending on me in this hole in the ground No longer will I see the light of day The saints are gonna make the sinner pay And maggots are waiting to feast on my flesh
