

Nowhere Bound

Death Before Dishonor

fk you you fked me I won't let it be you did this to me you destroyed my destiny all that I saw was the false sense of hope you forced down my throat let me choke on the cold hard truth life's a lie cause I was born just to die nowhere bound (2x) my life's finally got me beat so I think it's time to accept defeat I sit alone where I cannot be found cause in this world I'm nowhere bound if it's not depression it will be disease something is going to kill me and I cannot believe that I hurt from the same pains every day I'm just so fkin sick of living this way (repeat) as I look ahead I see that I'm better off dead everyday I wake to the cycle that I can't brake I'm stuck in this hell I can't run away from myself there's nothing for me but a lifetime of broken dreams all people want to do is live a fairy tale life want to be right forget what is real pushing to survive and meet all your goals why lie to yourself you know you amount to nothing and then you face what is called a cold reality sitting by yourself hating endlessly thinking what you should have done in the past about to end it all I can hear the blast pray for the end nowhere nowhere bound (4x)
