

Choose a Side or Open Wide

Death By Stereo

In this great place, humans are attractions
And kids live in a cage
Live in the center, not on the right
So you can keep the Klan robes
Clean, white, and out of sight

Moderates open the floodgates for extremists
The key-holders, yeah, the in-betweeners
Sit on the fence, you don't choose a side
Come on in, man, the door's open wide

We live in America the great
Where the food is poison and the kids eat rape
Looks like a circus tent to me
We live in the home of the brave
The schools are churches and the kids learn hate
Looks like a clown house to me

I've taken all your darkness, it's feeding on my death
First in line for the slaughter, last in line for the bread
I'll take it as it comes, few and far between
The stage is a canvas, this is more than just a scene
It's my way of life, my reason to be
Escalate the situation with complete evaluation
Through and prayers, spreading errors
Truth is not what it seems

We live in America the great
Where the food is poison and the kids eat rape
Looks like a circus tent to me
We live in the home of the brave
The schools are churches and the kids learn hate
Looks like a clown house to me

Alt right, fucking nazis
Alt right, fucking nazis
Alt right, fucking nazis
Alt right, fucking nazis
Alt right, fucking nazis
Alt right, fucking nazis
