

Something's Changing

Death By Stereo

Something's changing
My life is rearranging

Your vote, doesn't count
Another fight, another round
Ya' can't eat or pay the rent
Ya' wake up, ya' dead again
And you can't let yourself fall down

Something's changing
My life is rearranging

Fuck the world, then take it back
DBS, we will attack
We celebrate, with what we have
We build new, we make it last
And we can't let ourselves fall down

Something's changing
My life is rearranging

You gotta stand up, you wanna take them down
You wanna win this war, then fight another round

Something's changed in me

If you could be here now, we won't take them down
See our world is changing, but I can't run away
I will not back down, I will go on raging

I won't let you fall!

Something's changing
My life is rearranging

You gotta stand up, you wanna take them down
You wanna win this war, let's fight another round

Something's changed in me
