

All Alone

Death Plus

There's something 'bout you that I'll never know
I'm 'bout to get to you, I feel you though
Tellin' me that you wanna let it go
Well then just let it go
Nobody knows, no, nobody knows
Nobody tries, they don't wanna know
Backing away, now I'm all alone (All alone)
Now I'm all alone

I got these questions, these questions that run through my head
I'm tellin' myself to let 'em, just let 'em
I feel the pressure now
I feel it resurrect me
Something to protect me
I want somebody to tell me it's okay, it'll get better
It's in my head, in my head, in my head
I feel like I'm never gonna get out of here
(Get out of here)
Tryna get out of here

'Bout you that I'll never know
I'm 'bout to get to you, I feel you though
Tellin' me that you wanna let it go
Well then just let it go
Nobody knows, no, nobody knows
Nobody tries, they don't wanna know (Don't wanna know)
Backing away, now I'm all alone (Get out of here)
Now I'm all alone

There's something 'bout you that I'll never know
I'm 'bout to get to you, I feel you though
Tellin' me that you wanna let it go
Well then just let it go
Nobody knows, no, nobody knows
Nobody tries, they don't wanna know
Backing away, now I'm all alone (All alone)
