

Attack

Death Plus

Yah, aye, yah, what, yaya
Kill 'em all, kill 'em all
Aye, yo
Kill 'em all, aye

Hit 'em like a runaway dump truck
When he struck it's night-night time
The crack lock-locked with the rock to the back of the cranium
Split like a slit
And your bitch on my dick with an ice pick
Stick that trick hella quick
Ain't nobody finna do a fucking thing about that
Ain't nobody even finna notice
Know this shit for a fact
When the gat goes click
Zigzag that blade in your neck 'til it crack or I hit that artery
Know that every motherfucking part of me's covered in your arterial spray
You can say I don't resemble a human being
Seeing that it's so hard to be nice when the motherfuckers push your buttons
Twice, better think before you start by me

You must be as high as a fucking police chopper to be thinking that you'll stay alive when you come at us
High, wasted with disrespect
Better run like a fucking nun from a throbbing cock when the gat is clicking
Bout to regurgitate and vomit lead at your head
Shoulda came correct

Yah, never talk that shit if you can't back it up, now back it up (Back it up)
Tell 'em all I've done had enough
Killing motherfuckers, then pack it up
I'm packing up the weapons and other things that I get that's gonna knock at your system
I'm sending shit to the places they living
Ready to murder 'em and all who's with 'em
Death Plus run up and take yo life with a blade and a plastic bag (And a plastic bag)
Touching up on the trigger, feeling you leave your body when I cock it back
When I want a dead body I just gotta get the shotty from the victim and then I splat
Guts go splat, then your vision go black
It's a wrap and a death when you're on the attack

Attack, yah, 'bout to attack
Yah, man
Why, aye ya, why, aye ya, wa, wa
Yo, that's why, go fuck yourself when you step to the motherfucking death boys
'Bout to attack
Aye, wah
Attack, attack, attack, attack
'Bout to attack, attack
'Bout to attack, attack, bitch
'Bout to attack, attack
Ya, ya, 'bout to attack, bitch
