

Closing In

Death Plus

I don't know, I got a feeling inside of me
It tells me something there is watching us beyond the trees
They want you dead; I came to tell you, so just listen please
I get the feeling that nobody's really listening
A red dot on your head, it's a mystery
I was there, you were sitting right next to me
I ran away, had to do what's best for me
I get the feeling that there's someone running after me

[?], yeah
Closing in
I can sense it, yeah
They're closing in
Yeah, yeah
Closing in
I can sense it, yeah
They're closing in [?], yeah
Closing in
I can sense it, yeah
They're closing in [?], yeah
Closing in
They're closing in
