

Kill You

Death Plus

Oh, aye
You don't love me, yeah, I know you hate me
Thinking I just wanna kill you lately
Thinking I just wanna let it through
Slaughter

You don't love me, yeah, I know you hate me
Thinking I just wanna kill you lately
Thinking I just wanna let it through
I think that I wanna kill you, baby
I lost track of everything, I know you know that
But one day I'ma pull up, make it go black
Easy way to stop the pain
Easier than letting you know that

I wanna kill you
I fucking hate you
I don't wanna see you
I just wanna take you
To the fucking trees, yeah
Put you on your knees
And look the other way
And never gonna see it

You don't love me, you just can't be lonely
I don't really wanna die in this fucking hell
My surroundings let me know you hate me
If you really wanna cry, do it by yourself
All this time your living lies won't save me
Gotta leave out to the coast for my fucking health
Swear to god you'll see me shine here, baby
In that moment, you gon' love nobody else

Now I'm begging
On my knees, yeah
Got me pleading
I think I'm 'bout to fall apart
Come with me, yeah
Count to three
Make me bleed, yeah
I should've told you from the start

I wanna kill you
And I wanna hate you
Still I'm gonna love you
I don't wanna break you
I wanna kill you
And I wanna hate you
Still I'm gonna love you
I don't wanna break you
