

LASTCIGARETTE

Death Plus

Cold nights when I don't got a light
Uptight, no, I don't feel alright
No life, I know you're in my mind
You got a life and you got no time for mine
Wake up right at the end of time
My eyes can't see because I'm blind
Deaf, dumb, and something just ain't right
Look at the sky as the water starts to rise up
I look back down at the pavement
I don't wanna fall
I look back down at the pavement
