Death Plus

I wouldn't ever say I love you if I didn't, though You're the one in the wrong and this time that's [?]
But that's not how everything goes, I know we're not invincible
This is the problem, I don't ever wanna let it go
This is the pain I feel when I wake up, it kills me so
When I feel like talking, that's not often, but I'll get to you
This isn't something that I'm used to, but here we go

I don't know what you've been thinking but [?]
If you wanna talk to me, then I wanna talk to you
It's just this feeling I keep waking up to
I don't know what it's telling me but I don't think it's meant for you
[?] but I know it's true
I don't know what to do when I'm far from you
Living inside the waves and looking out, just going through
The motions that I do, whenever I'm not with you

I've been so far from you
I've been so far from you
I've been so far from you
I've been so far from you
