

Ready For War

Death Plus

(Devereaux!)

All of my killers out here focused, posted I notice that you don't want this but I promise we can go toe t o toe
I'm looking for an opponent got no motive just wanna kill some more
I'm floating through the streets over the trees just like a fuc king ghost
I'm smoking like a fire catch me higher than you'll ever go Boy you don't wanna try us can't deny us we professionals [?] stay progressing
Now I'ma teach yo ass a fucking lesson right before I send you home
I'm straight with the shit because they just don't get it I guess that no one ever told 'em that this world is unforgiven
And it don't stop for nobody and it doesn't miss a minute Yeah the clock keeps tickin' until your time's up finished
And that's just the way it goes whether you like it or not No matter how hard that you hope no matter how much you'd like it to stop
All of these issues in this world persisting after you rot
It's a natural disaster turn to ashes it's gone
