

Restless

Death Plus

I've been restless all tonight
I miss never being up at night
I trust in the happenings of mine

Retract everything I said to you
And bring it back, just without the attitude
You don't want anything I'ma do to you
And I know it, babygirl, it ain't up to you
You ask me questions but it ain't gonna change shit, no
Why you tryna get me all so anxious?
Make another statement, nobody's gonna say shit
Whatever you do, you still know what they're thinkin'
I wish you would find something to do
Other than putting everybody inside your shoes
Better catch someone that isn't on to you
And say your best goodbyes to everyone you knew
I've been restless all tonight
I've been restless all tonight
I've been restless all tonight
I've been restless

Baby, I been cruisin', doin' shit to get my brain off you
Days keep getting slower when you do shit on your own time
I give no fuck 'bout who they talkin' 'bout, them boys keep tal kin' shit
'Cause they just want some clout, we not the same, please don't compare me, bitch
I'm doin' shit that make me level up and gain some knowledge, b itch
I'm stalking in the mist with [?] we steady mobbin' Throwin' 'em in the fucking dungeon, leave 'em there until they pungent-smelling corpses filled with fungus, follow me into the under Bitch, I'm doin' things and [?], not playing with you fuckin' l ames
I'm in my lane, I stay the same forever, never sell out [?], fuck who better, doesn't matter
[?], choose 'em wisely, bitch, you can't take any of it back

I wish you would find something to do
You never told me any truth, that's why I'm through with you
Fuck you, what I do, it isn't up to you
Say your best goodbye because I'm done with you
I wish you would find something to do
You never told me any truth, that's why I'm through with you
Fuck you, what I do, it isn't up to you
