

sadness

Death Plus

I been thinkin' bout my life
I don't know if I wanna try
But would you look at the time?
Too late, now it's time to die
Will you cry when I'm gone?
Never really had too much fun
Am I your only one?
Oh no, he's got a gun, oh no
Should I kill myself or should I wait for you?
'Cause I don't wanna go
'Cause of what I've put you through
I don't want you to have it
Watch me choreograph this Complicated view on what I want to happen
I'm a little crazy, and I got a habit
Of overthinking shit that won't happen
I'm by myself and I'm by the casket
Life isn't worth filling up on the sadness
