

Tape In The Deck

Death Plus

Dead Man Walking
Project Infinite

Like they can't fuck with me cuz it ain't no competition
I been doing what I want so long don't know no different
Had to get away from my past, and no I don't miss it
I had to get up off of my ass and get straight to my business
Motivated by my absolution
Need some isolation, I need some time to do shit
God of my own world, controlling my future
Watch as I unfurl something you ain't used to

I'm ready to let it go, turn it on, give it more
Give it back, put the tape in the deck, let it roll
I got to get it out, I gotta let em know
Ima take it where these other motherfuckers won't go

I'm ready to let it go, turn it on, give it more
Give it back, put the tape in the deck, let it roll
I got to get it out, I gotta let em know
Ima take it where these other motherfuckers won't go

Takin it to the muthafuckin max
Bitch you wasting all your time, best wake up and face the fact s
Fuck the past, Fuck the future, nothing lasts
Fuck the world, I just wanna watch it all turn into ash
I'm bout to set it off, I'm bout to cause a shift
I'm bout to make a move, bout to show em what it is Yeah wassup wit it, you fuckin wit a creature from the crypt
I been creepin around and thinkin of how to sneak into yo crib
I been in the dark, lurking bout to beat you to submission
Ima leave you in the ground then I recede into mist
Disappear into the shadows never see me again
I stay quiet but inside I got some demons within

I'm ready to let it go, turn it on, give it more
Give it back, put the tape in the deck, let it roll
I got to get it out, I gotta let em know
Ima take it where these other motherfuckers won't go

I'm ready to let it go, turn it on, give it more
Give it back, put the tape in the deck, let it roll
I got to get it out, I gotta let em know
Ima take it where these other motherfuckers won't go
