Time

Death Plus

It's all about the time you give to me
Yeah, that's what's on your mind, yeah

It's all about the time you give to me
Yeah, that's what's on your mind, and it's fine, babe
You're nothing like what you wanna say
I love your world with an awkward pain
And when you break me, don't let it go to waste
You gotta get all of your things and get away, yeah
It's all about the way you always get to me
Yeah, it's gonna be an awkward day
I can't breathe without it or sleep without it
I'd die without you, girl
I can't dream without it or be without it
I lost my fucking world
