All Hell Breaks Loose

Death Threat

All hell breaks loose,
You feel the tightening of the noose.
World gone insane as we watch it go up in flames.
Its the end of the world,
Straight to hell you'll all be hurled.
Blood has been shed,
When will it end.
Stop the holy wars,
Its time to repent.
If you turn your back on god,
To hell you'll all be sent.
The end is here,
Time to face the apocalyptic nightmare.
Its too fking late as we watch it go up in flames.
Floods and fires and natural disasters.
See our demise, its coming faster.
Stop the holy wars its time to repent.
If you turn your back on god, to hell we'll all be sent.
Its in the air,
You can taste the fear.
The end is here,
I hope you've said your prayers.
