

Hated and Proud

Death Threat

To all the kids who still got heart.
To the ones who were here from the start.
If you live hardcore you got nothing to lose.
If you really got heart you got nothing to prove.
You're here for the right reasons.
The music, the message and the friendship.
You don't change with the seasons .
You don't have to because you live it,
Love it or leave it.
I said it again because i truly believe it.
This is a way of life,
Not a game for the weak.
It's pumping through our veins,
Even the way we speak.
We're alone in this world.
Outcast, hated and proud.
