

No Turning Back

Death Threat

My life's complete,
I've got everything i need.
Patience is a virtue and i brought you to me.
Destined to happen, it was always meant to be.
There is no turning back, this is our destiny.
Throw caution to the wind and let the chips fall where they may
That's how we play. roll the dice and take another chance.
These are our days.
Nothing without you,
You've been my saving grace.
Addicted to you, brought together by fate.
Too long without feels, like i'm going insane.
You feel my pain, we're one in the same.
My life with you it gets better everyday.
I hope you are by my side until my dying days.
I'm lost without you, feel like i am in a maze.
Confused and dazed, my minds gone ablaze.
