

Together as One

Death

Labelled a creation of evil
Ridiculed for their shocking appearance
Sharing both pleasures and pain
Two minds, two hearts, one soul
Separating mentally
An illusion of privacy
Together - they absorb each others lives
As One - they will live and they will die
A living hell has begun

Displayed as a nightmare
Criticized through words and eyes
As they stare
To the normal it seems grotesque
Connected by a bond of flesh
Sharing both pleasures and pain
Two minds, two hearts, one soul
Separating mentally
An illusion of privacy
Together - they absorb each others lives
As One - they will live and they will die
A living hell has begun
