

Even If It Bleeds

DeathbyRomy

You can be the death of me
Honestly, it sounds lovely
You can have the rest of me
I saved myself for this moment

And I can give you all you need
We're all living to die
We're all going down in the end
So you can

Have my heart, even if it bleeds
Even if it bleeds, even if it bleeds
Have my heart, even if it bleeds
Even if it bleeds, even if it bleeds

On the way up, it's a small world
You and I are bound to meet again
We're both poured from the same mold
And I'm only aiming for the kiss of death

Fortune favors the bold
And we're both getting nothing
No I can't go on without you
'Cause the weight [?] crushing

You can have my heart, even if it bleeds
Even if it bleeds

Have my heart, even if it bleeds
Even if it bleeds, even if it bleeds
Have my heart, even if it bleeds
Even if it bleeds, even if it bleeds

Have my heart
Even if it, even if it, even if it, even if it
Even if it, even if it, even if it, even if it (have my heart)
Even if it, even if it, even if it bleeds

Have my heart, even if it bleeds
Even if it bleeds, even if it bleeds
Have my heart, even if it bleeds
Even if it bleeds, even if it bleeds
Have my heart, even if it bleeds
Even if it bleeds, even if it bleeds
Have my heart, even if it bleeds
Even if it bleeds, even if it bleeds

Bleeds, bleeds
Bleeds, bleeds
Bleeds, bleeds
Bleeds, bleeds
