

Used to feel the shadows in the night time
Now I'm one with monsters and yes I'm fine
I've finally found the throne that I can make mine
I'ma be the queen of the night time
I'm the light in the dark and I will shine
Keep my head up I know I'm gon' be fine
I'm the light in the dark and I will shine
Just don't be afraid and you'll be alright
How do we find ourselves
We are all pieces of someone else
I know I'm made of wealth
But we're pieces and me I'm just someone else
I run with monsters and we are the ones
To feed off our own light
We don't need the sunrise on our own [?]
Ooooo I
Ooooo I
Ooooo I
Why is my reflection scary?
Real reflections of the real me
It's no wonder I'm so scary
But I'ma fix this
Get into my head and re-twist
Til all my wires realign
And I can do this
I'm a statue in my mind
I found my own bliss
Wish me goodbye with a kiss
