

Stronger

DeathbyRomy

There's a heart
That's once worth breaking
Before you let it break and break again
But there's a child inside you dying
If you don't let it win
You must be careful
For I know trying
Can slowly pull you through your sins

Need no reminding
I'm only crying
Inside my head
Until I begin
I feel the feelings
And all the memories
Yes I know heartbreaks break you
But you're stronger

Before you let it break and break and break again
You gotta earn shit
But what's it worth
Until you take the lesson
That you're meant to learn from all the shit you thought you never deserved?
If you don't feel it
You'll never grow from what that shit was meant to show you

Need no reminding
I'm only crying
Inside my head
Until I begin
I feel the feelings
And all the memories
Yes I know heartbreaks break you
But you're stronger
