

Vicious Bliss

DeathbyRomy

Toxic

I'm addicted to the never ending violence
I'm a missile in the middle of a mosh pit
I'd do anything to live inside the vicious bliss

Bruises

All the screams around me start to sound like a music
And I'm scared of what I'll do the day I lose it
Cus I know I'm gonna die inside the vicious bliss

Slit my wrist, and I lick my lips
Just to get a taste of the vicious bliss
Going 99 speeding off the cliff
Just to get a taste of the vicious bliss

I've got a hunger for the hunt of adrenaline
I play the sheep amongst the wolves to feel alive again
I've got a pyromaniac heart and the fires my friend
I throw myself inside the flames to feel alive again

La la la la la la la la la la
La la la la la la la la la la
La la la la la la la la la la
La la la la la la la la la la

Slit my wrist, and I lick my lips
Just to get a taste of the vicious bliss
Going 99 speeding off the cliff
Just to get a taste of the vicious bliss

Violently happy
Drowning in ecstasy
Floating on moonbeams
Embracing entropy

In the flames I hold the pain of a hundred years
As I glisten in the sea of a million years
I thank each blade that's pierced my skin for the scars I own
And every fist that's kissed my lips makes my smile grow

La la la la la la la la la la
La la la la la la la la la la
La la la la la la la la la la
La la la la la la la la la la

Slit my wrist, and I lick my lips
Just to get a taste of the vicious bliss
Going 99 speeding off the cliff
Just to get a taste of the vicious bliss

Violently happy
Drowning in ecstasy
Floating on moonbeams
Embracing entropy
