Waves

DeathbyRomy

I was alone before you left me (I was alone before you left me)
Already satisfied on my own (Satisfied on my own)
You make me comfortable depending (You make me comfortable depending)
I never thought you'd ever go (Thought you'd ever go)

Do the line, but you came back in
Should run, but I'm stumbling
Don't know why I'm still struggling, but I am cause
Missing you comes in waves

Missing you comes in waves
Missing you comes in waves
Missing you comes in waves
And tonight I'm drowning

And tonight I'm drowning
And tonight I'm drowning

Do the line, but you came back in
Should run, but I'm stumbling
Don't know why I'm still struggling, but I am cause
Missing you comes in waves
Missing you comes in waves
And tonight I'm drowning

My fragile heart it feels so heavy
I'm in a fight to lose control (in a fight to lose control)
Shelter me when I am drowning (Shelter me when I am drowning)
Under the wave I'm letting go (Under the wave I'm letting go)

Do the line, but you came back in
Should run, but I'm stumbling
Don't know why I'm still struggling, but I am cause
Missing you comes in waves

Missing you comes in waves
Missing you comes in waves
Missing you comes in waves
And tonight I'm drowning

And tonight I'm drowning
And tonight I'm drowning

Do the line, but you came back in
Should run, but I'm stumbling
Don't know why I'm still struggling, but I am cause
Missing you comes in waves
Missing you comes in waves
And tonight I'm drowning
