

March of the Thousand Legions

Deathchain

Megatons of iron are moving towards us
Noise of their engines will soon fill the land
Breaking the ground with their machines of hate
As they march for the third nuclear war

Skies are bleeding... napalm
Air is poisoned... from vx

Legions from east are now roaming supreme
Blood from golgotha is dripping again
Sentence of death is upon our nations
The four horsemen will fulfill the prophecy...

Prophecy of doom

March! march! march! of the thousand legions!

Beast is rising... all hell breaks loose
Skies are bleeding... napalm
Air is poisoned... from vx

They came from hell like bullet from the gun
March of the legions the final march on earth
Under bloodred skies where we dig our graves
There stands a shadow, shadow of the beast

March! march! march! of the thousand legions!
