

Love In Disguise

Debbie Gibson

I don't know why we had to go Our love ended with the change of the weather
I know a way to survive
But it would be much better if you were here
'cause we never fell out of love

There's not a trace of happiness
Why do you think it's all right
when love is in your eyes?
We still live for each other
But still we keep pretending that there's no love in disguise, in disguise

We're playing games like we did before Now we're feeling the sorrow but some things just never change so come on...take me back into your arms
If I remember - you left them open for me

After all it took to get together You would think (you would think) it would last (it would last) forever (forever)

There's not a trace of happiness
Why do you think it's all right?
I see love is in your eyes
We still live for each other
But still we keep pretending that there's no love there's no, there's no
love in disguise

There's not a trace, there's not a trace Why do you think it's so wrong
When love is in your eyes?
We still live for each other
But still we keep pretending that there's no, no love in disguise, in disguise
