Sure

Debbie Gibson

Sure
I was so sure
Until I just
Didn't know any more.
Thought no storm would come
And when it came
I had to run
And I'll never be the same.....

Tears
They come and go
So often now
When I think of how hard we tried
It's no one's fault
Just like the tide
You never know until it hits you.

I remember days now they're in the past
Bitter sweet days – they went so fast
Try to win them back – it's a losing fight
'Cause we're alone tonight.....

I swear
I hear you calling
Your voice seems clear
Unlike the situation,
Love.....
Love really hurts
The more you learn
The more you wished you had forgotten

You apologize for being you,
But never justify
The things you do.
What is it I'm asking for
I only want to be sure.....

So cry
Yourself back to sleep now.
It won't be over though. (pain)
The morning comes
Daylight turns into darkness
As you realize only in dreams
Do dreams come true.

I remember days....
'Cause we're alone tonight

You apologize for being you.
But never justify
The things you do.
What is it I'm asking for
I only want to be,
All I wanna be,
God all I ask of you is to be sure.....

.....'Cause I was so sure

Until I just didn't know any more.
Thought no storm would come
And when it came
I had to run
And I'll never be the same.....
Sure.....
'Cause I was so sure
Until I just didn't know any more

Until I just didn't know any more.
Thought no storm would come
And when it came
I had to run
And I'll never be the same.....
