

Think With Your Heart

Debbie Gibson

Quiet now
While I hold you
Turn it off
The mind that is stopping you
Love is here
So why deny what you feel

Think with your heart
Speak with your soul
Touch me and feel
The world becomes whole
Break down the walls
Keeping you far
Be as in love
As you think you are

We live one time forever
It can be glorious heaven on earth
So quiet now while I kiss you
You decide what you feel heaven is worth

Think with your heart
Speak with your soul
Touch me and feel
The world becomes whole
Break down the walls
Keeping you far
You may be as in love
As you think you are
