

Solitude

Debbii Dawson

Leave me baby
Try not to cry
I'm not sorry
I won't live a lie

It's like you're holding me down
When you're holding my hand
You don't understand, don't understand
I got things I could do with my time and they don't involve you

Why would I waste another night
Letting you in to split my heart in two
What if I decide my solitude
Is better than you
Why would I give you one more try
Nobody makes me feel like I do
What if I decide my solitude
Is better than
Better than you

Feelings bubbling
The ones you won't like
I'm tired of keeping
Can't keep it all inside

Yeah it feels like you don't even know me at all
You don't understand, don't understand
If you did just a bit you would know to get out of my hair

Why would I waste another night
Letting you in to split my heart in two
What if I decide my solitude
Is better than you
Why would I give you one more try
Nobody makes me feel like I do
What if I decide my solitude
Is better than
Better than you

Don't want the company, don't need the help
Baby I'm better when I'm by myself
You wanna stay with me
You wanna stay with me I'd rather be on the moon
Than with you

Why would I waste another night
Letting you in to split my heart in two
What if I decide my solitude
Is better than you
Why would I give you one more try
(One more try)
Nobody makes me feel like I do
(Ooo I do)
What if I decide my solitude
(Solitude)
Better than you

(Ahhh)
Better than you
(Ahhh)
Better than you
(Ahhh)
