

Easy Way

Deborah Cox

(Turn the lights on)
Easy way to leave, easy way to go
Easy way to run straight up out the back door
Easy way to quit there's an easy way of giving up
(So easy, yeah)
There's no easy way to stay
When it hurts so much
Especially when you think you've had enough
Ain't no easy way to love love love
Ain't no easy way to love love love
Ain't no easy way

You scream out
Who's right or wrong
Can't tell
Emotions just can't be defined
It kills a part of me each time
Can't sing can't sell
My hands are up, oh well
Seems I am soon to lose my mind, oh
And if I could hit rewind
Don't know what I'd find, no no

Easy way to leave, easy way to go
Easy way to run straight up out the back door and
Easy way to quit there's an easy way of giving up
(So easy, yeah)
There's no easy way to stay when it hurts so much
Especially when you think you've had enough
Ain't no easy way to love love love
Ain't no easy way to love love love
Ain't no easy way

Gave it can't get nothing back
Still I miss your contact
Walk away and run back
Walk away and run back
Still I don't wish we were so far
I know I would miss you way too much
Every week the same thing
I can't even maintain
We can't even maintain
No no
And I know I need closure
But the only thing I want's your touch

Easy way to leave, easy way to go
Easy way to run straight up out the back door and
Easy way to quit there's an easy way of giving up
(So easy, yeah)
There's no easy way to stay when it hurts so much
Especially when you think you've had enough
Ain't no easy way to love love love
Ain't no easy way to love love love
Ain't no easy way

I'm cold and my face can't look up and I can't stand

(Ain't no easy way to love)

I know that you hurt me, but baby, your wish I said your wish is my command

But I made my table, so I can't break my table

Plus I'm so weak, too weak to leave cause I ain't able, there's an...

Easy way to leave, easy way to go

Easy way to run straight up out the back door and

Easy way to quit there's an easy way of giving up

Easy way of giving up

(So easy, yeah)

There's no easy way to stay when it hurts so much

Especially when you think you've had enough

Ain't no easy way to love love love

Ain't no easy way to love love love

Ain't no easy way to love love love

Ain't no easy way to love love love

Ain't no easy way to love love love

Ain't no easy way to love love love
