

World On My Shoulder

December Avenue

Too much buff and I'm getting so much compromised
I need to lessen the worries that have crossed my mind
Calm down and stay below
You don't need to be a foe

I wanna lever the visions that intense my eyes
I'm gonna suffer, it's all that I can visualize
Too young to go with the flow
Too soon I'm sinking below

But I want nothing more than your smile that will show
Everything we lived make me feel I can grow
Even if I hide, all my wishes were gone
And I'm trying to take this world out of my shoulder

I wanna lever the visions that intense my eyes
I'm gonna suffer, it's all that I can visualize
Too young to go with the flow
Too soon I'm sinking below

But I want nothing more than your smile that will show
Everything we lived make me feel I can grow
Even if I hide, all my wishes were gone
And I'm trying to take this world out of my shoulder

But I want nothing more than your smile that will show
Everything we lived make me feel I can grow
Even if I hide, all my wishes were gone
And I'm trying to take this world out of my shoulder
