

Alive

Declan J Donovan

I'm alive
Show me how to survive
You're the first one who ain't killing my time

My heart was done
With hit and runs
I wasn't bulletproof
But I got used to smoking guns

Then you showed up
Our lips were locked
That's how I learned to breathe
And suddenly believed in us

Baby you're my living proof
That I'm born again when I am with you
With you

I'm alive
Show me how to survive
You're the first one who ain't killing my time

I'm alive
Show me how to survive
Silver linings turn to gold in your eyes

I'm alive
Show me how to survive
You're the first one who ain't killing my time

I'm alive
Show me how to survive
Silver linings turn to gold in your eyes

I'm alive
Show me how to survive
You're the first one who ain't killing my time

I'm alive
Show me how to survive
Silver linings turn to gold in your eyes

Lost in your gaze
My sweet escape
You taught me honesty
And honestly
You're worth the wait

I swear your arms
Like CPR
I woke up in your hands
You're heaven-sent
That's what you are

Baby you're my living proof
That I'm born again when I am with you
With you

I'm alive
Show me how to survive
You're the first one who ain't killing my time

I'm alive
Show me how to survive
Silver linings turn to gold in your eyes

I'm alive
Show me how to survive

I'm alive
Show me how to survive
Silver linings turn to gold in your eyes

I'm alive
You're the first one who ain't killing my
Time
I'm alive
Silver linings turn to gold in your eyes
