

Berlin

Declan J Donovan

Took a chance and I went all in
Took a one-way to Berlin
Out of the gate, I went straight to the Central Station
And you were right where you said you'd be
Kinda shy when we said "hello"
It's so much easier over the phone
Putting our bags in the back of a car
Putting our faith in our hearts

That was July
And now it's November
It was another life
But I still remember

Being drunk, riding scooters at midnight
Getting caught under Brandenburg streetlights
Six weeks, getting lost in a moment
So naive, I was blindingly open
I can still feel the heat of the summer
You and me sleeping out of the covers
Even though we weren't right for each other
I had the best time, the best time
Getting hurt by you, getting hurt by you

We even helped your friends move out
'Cause your friends are my friends now
But when they talked, I still wasn't sure what they were saying
But I laughed anyway
I can't erase that look on your face
When I took off my clothes and jumped into the lake
You could say you looked surprised
But I had the best time, the best time

Being drunk, riding scooters at midnight
Getting caught under Brandenburg streetlights
Six weeks, getting lost in a moment
So naive, I was blindingly open
I can still feel the heat of the summer
You and me sleeping out of the covers
Even though we weren't right for each other
I had the best time, the best time
Getting hurt by you, getting hurt by you
Getting hurt by you
Hurt by you, getting hurt by you

You taught me to live in the moment
How a heart that is loved can be broken
It's been months and we still haven't spoken
But I had the best time, the best time

I can still feel the heat of the summer
You and me sleeping out of the covers
Even though we weren't right for each other
I had the best time, the best time
Getting hurt by you, getting hurt by you
Getting hurt by you (getting hurt by you)
Hurt by you, getting hurt by you
