

Giants

Declan J Donovan

Let my mind tow the line, every time, fell through the tracks
Walking blind through warning signs, chasing highs
Now I'm helping myself to go back

Oh, oh-oh, oh-oh
What a beautiful wonder
To learn how to live with the pain
Oh-oh, oh-oh
'Cause I'm taller than I've ever been

Now I'm running with giants, flying with stars
Feeling the thunder, the beat of our hearts
Sending an echo to cut through the dark
Now I'm running with giants, giants
I'm running with giants, flying with stars
Feeling the thunder, the beat of our hearts
Sending an echo to cut through the dark
Now I'm running with giants, giants
I'm running with (Oh, oh-oh, oh-oh)
I'm running with giants, giants (Oh-oh-oh, oh-oh, oh-oh)
I'm running with giants, giants (Oh-oh-oh, oh-oh, oh-oh)

Standing tall, I never fall, break the walls, I know who I am
'Cause I'm the one who needs to hold my heavy soul
And carry the weight of it all

Oh, oh-oh, oh-oh
What a beautiful wonder
To learn how to live with the pain
Oh-oh, oh-oh
'Cause I'm taller than I've ever been

Now I'm running with giants, flying with stars
Feeling the thunder, the beat of our hearts
Sending an echo to cut through the dark
Now I'm running with giants, giants
I'm running with giants, flying with stars
Feeling the thunder, the beat of our hearts
Sending an echo to cut through the dark
Now I'm running with giants, giants
I'm running with (Oh, oh-oh, oh-oh)
I'm running with giants, giants (Oh-oh-oh, oh-oh, oh-oh)
I'm running with giants, giants (Oh-oh-oh, oh-oh, oh-oh)

Now I'm running with giants, flying with stars
Feeling the thunder, the beat of our hearts
Sending an echo to cut through the dark
I'm running with giants, giants
