

I'll Be There Love

Declan J Donovan

Remember when you went for that job
You didn't get it, you were so pissed off
Tried to make mom's lasagna for us, yeah
Made you smile even though it got burnt
Guess I knew that it would cheer you up
All these little things are part of love
It's just enough to stop you givin' up, ooh yeah

So if you get lost, then I'm gonna find you
Yeah, you know I'm here to stay

No matter what, I'll be there, love
Yeah, I'm the one to lean on
When it's tough, you got us
'Cause everyone needs someone
Through the tough times, and rough nights
Let me lift you up
'Cause I said "for better or worse"
So, I'll be there, love

2 A.M. drinking in the park
We both left our cars behind the bar
Didn't have change for the nightbus home
But it would've been worse if we were on our own
We were laughing all the way back
Had our favourite songs on playback
Yeah, I knew the next day that I'd have a sore head when I woke up, but
You always put the coffee in my cup

If you get lost, then I'm gonna find you
Yeah, you know I'm here to stay

No matter what, I'll be there, love
Yeah, I'm the one to lean on
When it's tough, you got us
'Cause everyone needs someone
Through the tough times, and rough nights
Let me lift you up
'Cause I said "for better or worse"
So, I'll be there, love
I'll be there, love

So if you get lost, then I'm gonna find you
Yeah, you know I'm here to stay

No matter what, I'll be there, love
Yeah, I'm the one to lean on
When it's tough, you got us
'Cause everyone needs someone
Through the tough times, and rough nights
Let me lift you up
'Cause I said "for better or worse"
So, I'll be there, love

I'll be there, I'll be there
I'll be there, I'll be there, love

I'll be there, I'll be there
I'll be there, I'll be there, love
Through the tough times, and rough nights
Let me lift you up
'Cause I said "for better or worse"
So, I'll be there, love
