

Bethlehem

Declan McKenna

So, you've left it all behind you
For a love is only as you see it
Though so many do confide in you
It seems you are the one that confides most

But you sin as you wish
Because I'm in Bethlehem
I've got a seat in heaven
And though I'm heaven sent
I can do as I want and you don't have the right to choose

Codes, you follow codes and break them
For a love is only what does suit you most
Hope, I hope and pray for love to reign
For love is what I give through my own codes

But you sin as you wish

Because I'm in Bethlehem
I've got a seat in heaven
And though I'm heaven sent
I can do as I want and you don't have the right to choose

Because I'm in Bethlehem
I've got a seat in heaven
And though I'm heaven sent
I can do as I want

I'm in Bethlehem
I've got a seat in heaven
And though I'm heaven sent
I can do as I want
