

Honest Test

Declan McKenna

All this gets me low
'Cause I feel for you
My honest testimony
I leave for you

On, get gone
Gone I shoulda known

You said, "For once in your life
Would you just get it right?
Make it easy for yourself, my love."
You said, "I never hung you to dry."
I don't get why as I drip and I skid
'Cause I think you did
This old thing don't write right these days
Used to be so quick
Now I shake, and I shake
Well, the thought just makes me sick

All this gets me low
'Cause I feel for you
My honest testimony
I leave for you
'Cause all this gets me low
'Cause I feel for you
My honest testimony
I leave for you (It's so easy, babe)

Get gone, I shoulda known

Don't you try take my good love from me
You'd have to grab my spine
And fill it up, fill it up
And get it back on time
'Cause

All this gets me low
'Cause I feel for you
My honest testimony
I leave for you
'Cause all this gets me low
And I feel for you
My honest testimony
I leave for you
